Event Name : Awareness Program on Water Pollution

Date : 09-01-2020

Event Venue : Seethanagaram Village

The Awareness Program On Water Pollution organized by the Department of Automobile Engineering in collaboration with the NSS unit of GIET(A) at Seethanagaram Village was a resounding success. By bringing together experts, community members, and students, the program effectively disseminated knowledge about water pollution and its implications. The interactive nature of the event ensured active participation, and the distribution of informational materials and commitments from attendees indicated a positive change in their attitudes towards water pollution. Such initiatives play a vital role in raising awareness and fostering positive environmental practices within communities.
